Corporate Environment

Arts Based Productivity and Management Presentations

A one day workshop on how art and music can be integrated into a team's daily work to increase productivity

Teaches management how to better manage their team and workers through the use of music and art exercises

'Beth's programs were astounding - productivity went way up and worker participation in meetings became more creative'

James Adams / Corporate Concepts & Solutions

The Creative Workplace Consulting

Works one-on-one with managers and employees alike

Each session is twenty minutes long, two times per week, and includes arts based exercise reviews

'Beth's one-on-one consulting was invaluable to our firm - we really underestimated the difference it would make'

Rachel Williamson / Director / Mr Ralph
